ACCIDENT BENEFITS

What you may be eligible to receive if you are injured in an accident?

If you were injured in a car accident, you can claim accident benefits from your automobile insurance company. Your entitlement to benefits will vary depending on the seriousness of your injuries. The rules are complicated, but the following list will give you an idea of what may be available to you:

- Income replacement benefits help replace lost income if an employed or self-employed claimant is disabled.
- Caregiver benefits pay certain childcare or other caregiver expenses if a stay-at-home parent or other caregiver is unable to care for a child or other person in need of care.
- Non-earner benefits are paid if a claimant who is not employed or self-employed is unable to carry on with normal life.
- Medical and rehabilitation benefits pay for treatment and rehabilitation assistance that is not covered by OHIP or another disability insurance plan.
- Attendant care benefits pay for someone to look after a seriously injured claimant.
- Funeral expenses and death benefits are paid if an insured person dies as a result of the accident.
- Depending on your circumstances, you may also be entitled to other benefits, such as payments for lost education expenses, housekeeping assistance, visitors' expenses, repair or replacement of eyeglasses or clothing damaged in the accident, or case management services.

Dealing with your insurance company can be complicated, difficult and very stressful. We have the necessary legal expertise in accident benefits litigation and mediation that will ensure you receive all of the benefits you are entitled to.
