

NOTICE OF DISMISSAL OF ACTION

Important Notice Regarding a Proposed Class Action against Shopify Inc. (Ontario Superior Court of Justice Court File No. CV-23-00092240-00CP)

On May 25, 2023, Iain Russell (the “Plaintiff”) commenced a proposed class proceeding, with Samfiru Tumarkin LLP as counsel, against Shopify Inc. (the “Defendant”). The proposed class proceeding involved inadvertent mistakes in termination letters that the Defendant sent to a small number of former Canadian employees whose employment was terminated without cause as part of a global reduction of workforce on May 4, 2023. The Plaintiff alleged breach of contract and breach of the duty of good faith in relation to revised letters the Defendant sent to class members after discovering the inadvertent mistakes. The Defendant denies the allegations made against them in the proceeding.

The proceeding was never certified as a class action. As the matter has not advanced since the claim was filed, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice has ordered that, effective June 10, 2024, the proceeding is dismissed for delay pursuant to s. 29.1 of the Class Proceedings Act, 1992.

YOU SHOULD TAKE NOTICE THAT while this proposed class action was pending, limitation periods (time limits) for starting individual actions in Ontario against the Defendant were suspended. Those limitation periods have resumed running again as of June 10, 2024. Upon the expiry of a limitation period, you may lose any right you might have had to sue. If you wish to pursue your own action against the Defendant, you should consult with your own lawyer, as you may need to take steps to protect your rights.
